

Developing the 21st Century Chinese Opera Performing Artist

Speaker:
Professor Martin LAU
Dean of the School of Chinese Opera

● Synopsis

The School of Chinese Opera academic programmes aspire to provide a new generation of Cantonese opera performing artists with reflective practice and comprehensive training. Through innovative teaching and learning, the School strives to equip young talents the knowledge necessary to navigate the challenges of the 21st century.

● Professor Martin Lau

Professor Martin Lau has served as the Dean of the School of Chinese Opera at The Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts (HKAPA) since 2018. He graduated from the University of Washington with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Integrated Social Sciences and earned his Master of Education degree in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies from Boston University. Professor Lau is currently studying a Doctor of Education in Organisational Change and Leadership at the University of Southern California Rossier School of Education.